Amateur women golfers from throughout the county will converge at Sportsman's Park, Wednesday, July 31, at 8 a.m., to tee off in a women's Par 3 golf tournament.

Awards will be presented to first, second and third place low net and low gross scorers. The tournament is sponsored by the county department of parks and recreation.

Sportsman's Park Par 3 course is located at 9637 S. Western Ave. A $1.60 entrance fee, which includes greens fees, is required of all entrants. For additional information, women should call tournament director Arlene Arnell, county parks women's sports specialist, RI 9-6911, extension 563.

DODGER STARS WIL INSTRUCT LOCAL KIDS

Dodger stars John Roseboro, Jim Gilliam, Bob Miller and Ron Fairly will teach baseball to area youngsters at a free baseball clinic to be staged Saturday at Roy Campanella Park, 14812 Stanford, Compton.

The clinic begins at 9:30 a.m. and lasts for an hour and a half. There are no admission charges.

Johnny Lindell, former New York Yankee star, is in charge of the program.

Fred Hessler, sports announcer, will be emcee. Twenty-four regulation baseballs will be given away, plus 10 pairs of tickets to Dodger and Angel games. Entry blanks for the game tickets are available at supermarkets and grocery stores in the area approximately 10 days in advance of the clinic.

New Golf Course Set for Park

A new regulation 18-hole golf course with driving range will be built at Victoria County Park, 19101 Towne Ave., Supervisor Kenneth Hahn announced.

Hahn said preliminary plans and specifications were prepared by well-known golf course architect William F. Bell.

Victoria Park recently became a part of Hahn's second district in a redistricting last month.

The supervisor, noting that 177 acres of land at the park had remained "idle" for several years, asked the county engineer to "move with dispatch" in providing another important recreational facility for county residents.

"County golf courses have proved a benefit to the taxpayers in two ways," Hahn said. "They are one of the most popular types of recreational areas, and they pay for themselves."

"But there are not enough of them," he added. "Therefore, I asked the county engineer to proceed immediately with plans and specifications."

Hahn pointed out the county retirement board will finance all construction. The board will then lease the facility to the county and the course will pay for itself through green fees.

"Such a procedure has proved highly successful at Western Avenue Golf Course," Hahn said.

Summer Clinic in Reading Set

An intensive one-week summer workshop, "A New Look at the Teaching of Reading," will be conducted by the Scott Foreman Co. at Marymount College Aug. 5 to 9.

The workshop will include linguistics as it applies to reading, word attack skills and children's literature, and will be held from 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. daily on the Palos Verdes Estates campus.

Fees are $15 for day students, which includes lunch, and $35 for resident students. Mother Constance, RSHM, is in charge of the workshop.
